March Club Run

A small group of 4-wheelers headed out with trip leader Mike Hixson to do some snow bashing. Bill Virden, myself (Dewey), and one visitor, Ray Gilmore, came ready for some snow. And snow we found. All was going well until we came to a low spot in the road that had blown full of snow. Each of us tried our turns at busting the drift. After a couple of hours of shoveling and strapping, we doubled back and explored some side roads we had passed on the way in. We decided to call it a day about mid-afternoon as there was a snow-storm blowing in. Dewey Williams
